Grey Leg, the stallion, has been bought from the Compton Stud on behalf of Luis Castells, of the Puntalara Stud, Argentine. Grey Leg, though twenty years old, looks as young and fresh as most horses half his age. He will first serve the mares bought for the Puntalara Stud at the last December Sales at Newmarket. Swynford filled the eye immensely when stripped for the Chippenham Plate, Without doubt, he stands now as one of the most commanding horses in training and a Cup horse that will by Ascot time cause the champions to look to their laurels. The son of John o' Gaunt still carries a coarseness about his hocks which will always remain with him; never—theless, it in no way affects his action, there being no more resolute or more powerful galloper to be found anywhere.

Many alterations are to be made at Liverpool before the next July meeting. Amongst other improvements the existing entrance to the paddock on the Ormskirk Road, near the Sefton Arms, is to be substituted by a substantial permanent block of Mo

Toronto, Ont., May 18.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club on Saturday. It will mark the introduction of the mutuel system of betting in Canada. The racing at Woodbine this spring will be high class. The presence of some of the best thoroughbreds on this continent and many of the star riders assure this. Today's arrivals included the stables of Thomas Clyde, Gwyn Tompkins and August Belmont. The big establishment of S. C. Hildreth, which includes the great racers Fitz Herbert, King James, Zeus, Novelty, Firestone, Montgomery and Rose Queen, is due in the morning. They are coming in three express cars. Mr. Belmont's thoroughbreds were unloaded in excellent condition this afternoon and Watervale, the whiner of the Preakness Handicap at Pimlico Wednesday, was as frisky as a two-year-old when he got off the cars. The outlook is for the greatest meeting ever held at Woodbine.

two-year-old when he got off the cars. The outlook is for the greatest meeting ever held at Woodbine.

The special train from Baltimore which reached Toronto at 11:30 this morning was made up of eight sleepers. In the party were Mortimer Mahoney, Joseph Murphy, W. J. Lyneh, J. J. Mackessey, Al Morrissey, Joseph, Blackburn, M. Burke, D. O'Brien, Samuel Blake, Washington Norvell, Philip Bollinger, Charles Ward, Samuel Spencer, Harry Nelson, C. F. Walters, Harry Miller, J. Newman, John Hynes, Bertram Claypool, J. Nasmith, Harry McLaughlin, Tobias Tompkins, Bert Kerryhardt, James Decker, John Goebel, Edward Moore, James T. McCarty, Timothy McCall, M. H. Kittleman, Frank Kittleman, J. H. Becker, Albert Edwards, John Fitch, John Stroud and John Parnell McInerney, There were 105 on the special and about twenty of this number stopped off at Buffalo for a day. The general impression is that the mutuel system which will have its first trial here on Saturday will prove a great success.

Lovetie, the crack racer in Mrs. Livingston's stable, has been taken down with a severe attack of pneumonia since his arrival here and little hope is entertained of his recovery.

Capt, P. M. Walker, who left Baltimore last night, is bringing the useful filly Eagle Bird along with him. She was turned over to Captain Walker by her owner, Charles Odell, to be raced on the Canadian circuit tracks.

Jockey C. H. Shilling, who is due here in the morning, will have the mount on Powderman in the King's Plate. This is the colt with which the Valey Farm Stable hopes to win the big race. It is said that an effort will be made to get jockey Eddie Dugan to ride St. Bass, the prospective favorite, Jockey D. McCarthy is slated to ride the colt, however, and has been galloping him all spring.

Olambala and Naushon, in the R. T. Wilson string, are among the latest arrivals at Woodbine. The horses of A. Turney, B. McLennau, G. R. Tompkins, W. A. Burttschell, H. Penny, P. M. Walker, Quiney Stable, H. L. Higginson, A. Simons and William Walker are other late

The track was a bit muddy today, but fast enough for horses to run half miles during the morning hours in 49 seconds and in 48 during the afternoon.

TO SUPPRESS BETTING IN HOLLAND.

A dispatch from The Hague last Wednesday said that the first chamber of the States General had that day adopted without revision the bill prohibiting "immorality," including mutuel betting and bookmaking at the race tracks. This is a measure that has been pending for some time past and is almost certainly destined to become a law presently. Racing is of little consequence in Holland, but the impending law did not have its origin in abuses in Dutch racing. A great many English bookmakers have for some time been carrying on what would be called hand booking in this country at Flushing and other Dutch coast ports near England, the bulk of their business being done with persons in the latter country by telegraph. Their methods have become extremely obnoxious to the authorities of Holland and the proposed law is designed to put them out of business. This it will do and, by way of making a clean sweep, will also do away with betting on the tracks.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Thomas Welsh, the prominent trainer who formerly saddled horses for the Newcastie Stable, August Belmont, H. P. Whitney and others, is on his way to England to witness the running of the Derby and Oaks. Welsh trained Mr. Whitney's $30,000 Bashti last year and as the great filly will probably start in the Oaks he is anxious to see how she compares with her British rivals.

with her British rivals.

A case which is attracting the interest of racing folks is on trial in Judge Harbeson's court at Covington, Ky. The plaintiff is J. T. Earle, who is suing former Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock, E. R. Bryson and Jerome B. Respess for $5,700, which he alleges is due as a balance on a real estate transaction. Earle alleges that the defendants agreed to purchase a tract of land from him at Spring Lake, Ky., it being their purpose to prevent a St. Louis racing concern from establishing a racecourse at that place.

FREE LANCE LOSES PURSE

FINISHES FIRST IN RACE AT CHURCHILL DOWNS, BUT IS DISQUALIFIED.

Batwa, Horse Repeatedly Interfered with, Benefits by Ruling and Jockey E. Martin Is Suspended

as a Consequence- Follie Levy's Stake.

Louisville, Ky., May 18.—Follie Levy, running in the colors of former jockey George Odom, won the Colonel Stakes, the feature of today's card at Churchill Downs and worth $1,170 net to the winner. The speedy daughter of Golden Maxim and Ridicule was held in high esteem by the speculators and she occasioned them considerable concern during the early part of the race on account of her failure to show her accustomed early speed. She settled well in her stride after going three-eighths, however, and came with a rush that carried her past Winning Widow, the early pacemaker, to win with plenty in reserve. Winning Widow held the others safe for second money and was a good margin in advance of Rocky O'Brien, the third horse, at the end. Angelus, from a slow beginning, made up ground and at a longer distance would have been a keen factor. There was a good bit of crowding in the race, with Golden Egg the chief sufferer.

Aside from the stake race, the main incident of the day's sport developed with the running of the second race, and was caused by the conduct of jockey E. Martin on G. J. Long's Free Lance. Martin, while at the post, allowed the colt to unseat him and the latter galloped away three-quarters before he was caught. In the running he showed the most speed and, aided by interference that followed Martin's action in steering him across the track from an outside position, he was able to go into a long lead. In the stretch he was challenged by Batwa and the latter was in a fair way to pass the Long juvenile when Martin began carrying Batwa wide, forcing A. Thomas to take back and try to get through on the Inside. Martin then deliberately crossed over and sharply cut Batwa off. Free Lance then went over to win handliy from Batwa, with Judge Sale in third place. The claim of foul lodged by A. Thomas was recognized and Free Lance was set back to last place, Batwa being declared the winner, with Judge Sale second and B. Airy third. Martin was susjended for ten days by the stewards for his foul riding tactics.

Round the World regained some of her lost prestige by an impressive victory in the seven-furlongs handicap in which she conceded weight to all the other starters. Despite her jaded appearance, the majority held her in favor and she made good in game fashion. Colston might have given her a stronger argument but for suffering much interference, which also served to keep him out of second place, Grover Hughes lasting to beat him a nose for that position.

The limit number of starters engaged in the opener, which furnished a victory for Ethelda, the favorite, with Eye White in second place. The latter was making his first start in a long time and made a creditable showing.

Luke Le Blond's American Girl was benefited by a clear course and a fast start in the fifth race, which aided her to victory over Alamitos and Terrible Dan. The last-named pair would probably have had the finish between them but for interference which they met.

mush between them but for interference which they net.

The closing purse went to Taboo, which also enoyed a clear course throughout. Fort Johnson and Desconnets fought it out for second place honors inishing in the order named. Desconnets was probably best, but suffered interference at critical periods of the running.

The proposed special race designed to bring Meritian and Governor Gray together is still hanging fire, tue to the failure of R. F. Carman to announce his consent to starting Meridian. John F. Schorr is consent to starting Meridian. John F. Schorr is consent to starting Meridian. John F. Schorr is consent to the failure of R. F. Larman to announce his consent to starting Meridian. John F. A. Thoburn, the jockey who served his apprenticeship with Richard Marsh, for whose stable he rode with success a few years back, and who has since been riding in India, where he rode thirty winners during the season just ended, has returned to England. He will spend the summer here before again returning to India, where he has accepted an engagement for next season. Thoburn, who is twenty-four years of age, can go to scale at 102 pounds.

It was the opinion of most judges that in point of looks the fourteen runners that did battle in the Two Thousand Guineas, taken collectively, were a long way above the average. The record time in which the contest was run heightens the view that our three-year-olds are pretty good this season.

Runnymede's hocks have a suspicion of weakness about them, besides which they stand away from him not a little. But for this there is a deal to like about the American, which looked as well as anything in the field for the Guineas and dld his trainer every credit. Broad in his hips, with tremendous reach, he gets over the ground to some tune, albeit he died out after showing up prominently to the Bushes.

STATISTICS OF THE PIMLICO MEETING.

The spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club, which opened at Pimlico April 29 and came to a close May 17, embraced sixteen racing days, during which 108 races were decided. The total distribution in stakes and purses amounted to $69.305, representing a daily average of $4.331.56. In this distribution 112 owners shared, with August Belmont and S. C. The stakes decided during the meeting, with the date of running, names of winners and value were as follows:

There was a general reduction of the track records during the meeting, new marks being made for four and a half furlongs, three-quarters of a mile, seven-eighths of a mile, one mile and sixty yards, and one mile and an eighth on the flat, besides two over the steeplechase course. In addition the mile record was twice equaled. One of the performances, Watervale's mile and sixty yards in \(\frac{1}{2}\). 42\(\frac{2}{5}\), represents a new American record for that distance, superseding a new American mark made by Priscillian earlier in the meeting. The track records for the various distances now stand as follows:
